

Surprise

tidy

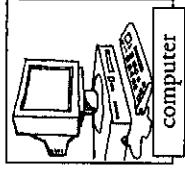

messy

birthday

ticket

computer

David and Ann Fox are married. David is a teacher and Ann is a writer. They are very happy. There is only one problem. David is tidy and Ann is messy.

Today is David's birthday and Ann wants to surprise him. She buys two tickets for the cinema. She goes into her computer room to put the tickets on her desk. She looks at the room. It is very messy. She starts to tidy the room. She works and works. At last the room is tidy.

At 7 o'clock, David comes home from work. What a surprise! David is very happy to see the tidy computer room. Ann tells David about the tickets to the cinema. But where are the tickets? Ann looks on the desk, under the chair and in her bag. She looks everywhere, but she can't find the tickets. She looks and looks. Finally, she finds the tickets. But look at the room. It is messy again!

A. Completa las frases con estas palabras.

(tickets) (cinema) (desk) (happy) (~~tidy~~)

1. Ann's computer room is a mess. It isn't tidy.
2. David and Ann have got tickets for the cinema.
3. David is very happy to see the tidy computer room.
4. The tickets are not on Ann's desk.
5. Ann doesn't find the tickets.

B. Rodea la palabra que no esté relacionada con las demás.

1. policeman * (computer) * writer * teacher
2. on * under * tidy * in
3. desk * chair * table * bank
4. cinema * tickets * restaurant * supermarket
5. dining room * kitchen * bedroom * desk

C. Busca en el texto dos palabras de cada grupo y escríbelas.

1. Places: home
2. Jobs: teacher
3. Things in the house: desk